

AKC FAST CAT INVITATIONAL

Compiled by Bea Page

Congratulations to all the qualifiers, winners & placers!

Inaugural Year – 2020

The first ever AKC FAST CAT Invitational was held 12/9-11/2020 in conjunction with the AKC National Championship Event in Orlando, FL. For 2020, just the fastest dog of each breed and the fastest mixed breed (All American) for the preceding year were invited. Rankings were based on the average of the dog's 3 fastest runs during the 2019 calendar year. If the fastest dog's invitation was declined, the second fastest dog was given a second-round invitation. If the second fastest dog's invitation was declined, the third fastest dog was given a third-round invitation. The fastest Bulldog on record for 2019 was invited and participated:

1. Dude 21.04 mph

2021

The second AKC Fast CAT Invitational took place 12/15-17/2021 in Orlando, FL in conjunction with the AKC National Championship. The criteria from 2020 changed, so instead of just one dog per breed, the three fastest dogs from each breed (& 3 fastest All Americans), based on rankings from AKC Fast Coursing Ability Tests (Fast CAT), were invited to participate in the second annual AKC Fast CAT Invitational. All dogs ran once each day and competed in two divisions: Pure Speed and Speed of the Breed. The top 10 fastest dogs according to height class in the Pure Speed division, were recognized based on how fast they ran. The top 10 dogs that ran the fastest over the average speed for their breed, were recognized in the Speed of the Breed division. Mixes and some breeds with a range in size (like Poodles) are split by height (L, M, S). The number one dog in each division was declared the 2021 Pure Speed Champion and the 2021 Speed of the Breed Champion. The 3 fastest Bulldogs on record for 2020 were invited and participated:

2022

The third AKC Fast CAT Invitational was held 12/13-17, 2022 in Orlando, FL in conjunction with the AKC National Championship. Criteria changed from the previous year, so for 2022, the top five dogs in each breed as ranked in the 2021 online rankings and the official Invite List were eligible to enter. That meant that any dogs ranked 1-5 for their breed could enter using the online entry form, and entries for fourth placed dogs no longer needed to wait for a decline to be received from one of the top 3 in their breed in order to attend. The 5 fastest Bulldogs on record for 2021 who were invited are listed below, but no Bulldogs participated.
